THE SILVER ANNIVERSARY OF THE BLUE AND THE GOLD

September 18, 1923

Principal Harold E. Williams

1923

For a quarter of a century the Edward Drummond Libbey High School has carried on a fine and consistently progressive program of education which has made it outstanding in the community and in the state. The school's very successful organizer and first principal was Mr. Harold E. Williams.

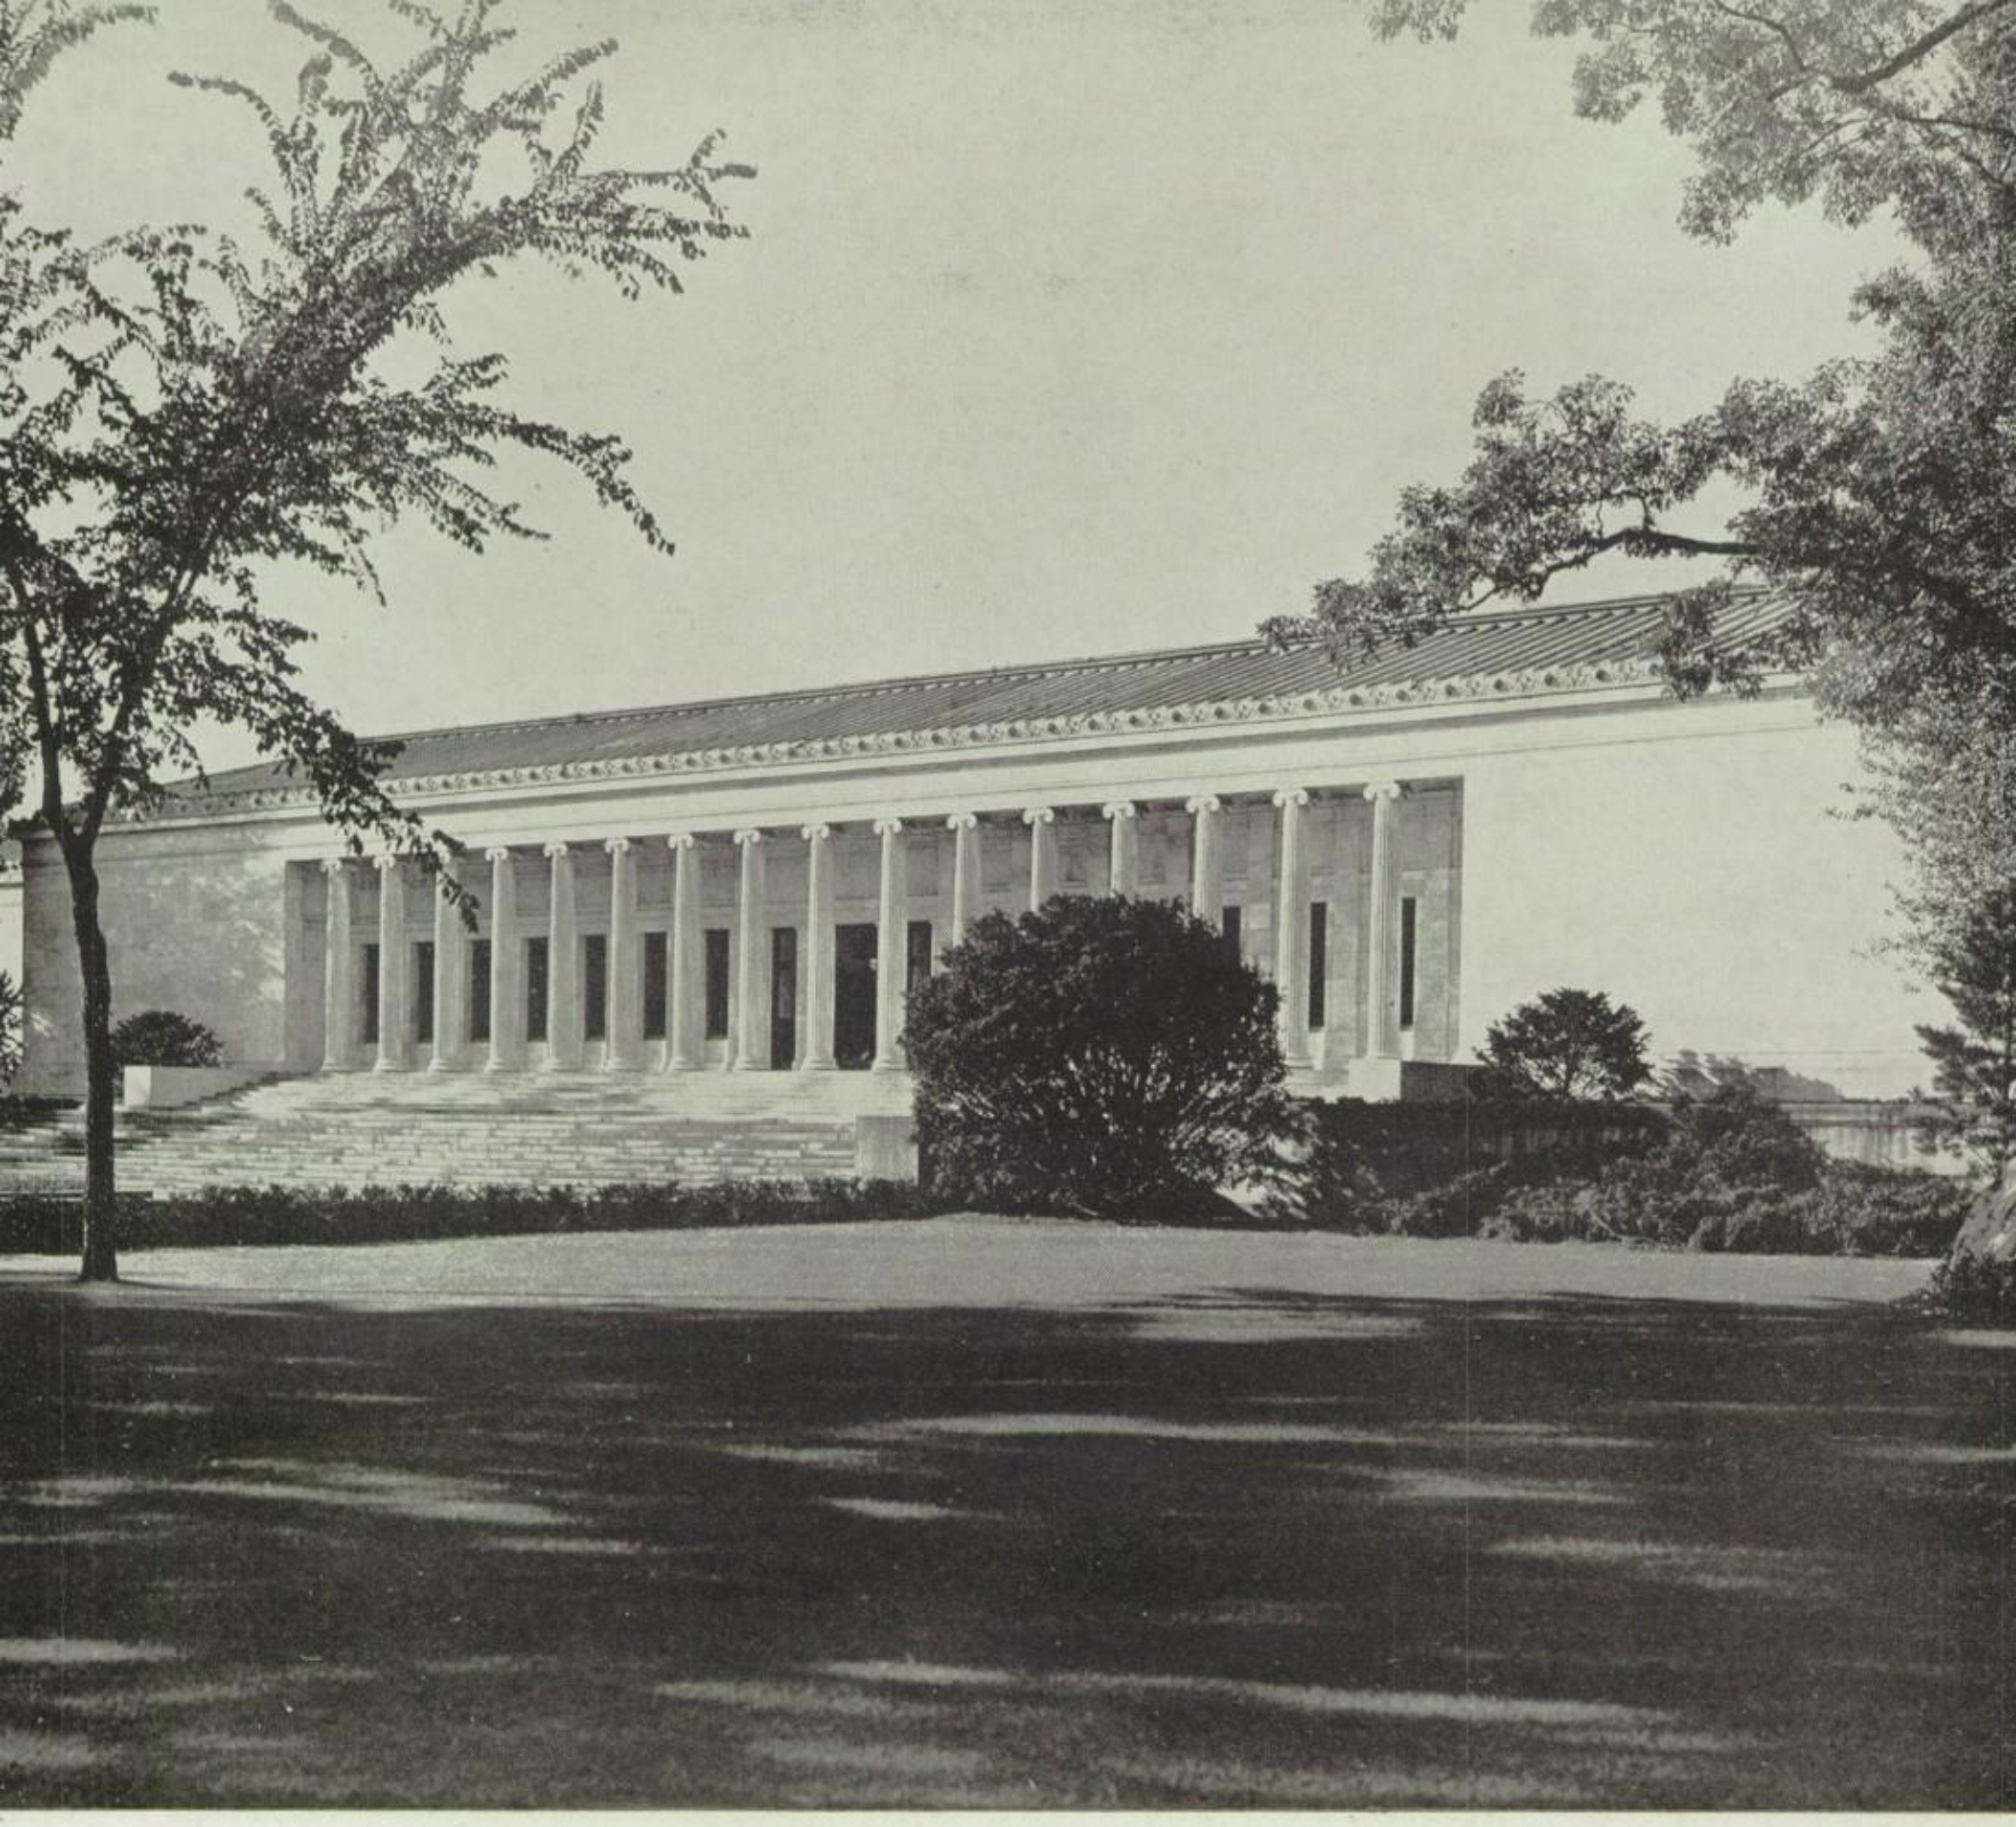
EDWARD DRUMMOND LIBBEY

To have lived not in one's self alone is to live always in the hearts of others! Edward Drummond Libbey for whom our school was named is remembered with honor and reverence for his part in the cultural development of our Toledo.



Symbolizing the love of the beauty of art and the quest for knowledge, the Toledo Museum of Art is a monument to the beneficence of its patron, Mr. Libbey, and a constant cultural inspiration and invitation to every one of us.

HAROLD E. WILLIAMS

September—nineteen hundred twenty-three! The South Side of Toledo thrilled at the opening of the new Edward Drummond Libbey High School and eagerly welcomed Principal Harold E. Williams, formerly principal of Woodward High School! Because of his meritorious work and great administrative abilty, Mr. Williams has built Lbbey's reputation firmly and well. Today we honor and revere our first principal for all that he has been and all that he has done for us and with affectionate gratitude dedicate to him this twenty-fifth edition of the Edelian.

LOY W. RUSIE

September—nineteen hundred forty-eight! The South Side of Toledo proudly congratulates our school on its twenty-fifth birthday! We have advanced splendidly in every manner. We are looking forward to greater achievements under the direction of our genial new principal, appointed this year as Libbey's second principal, Mr. Loy W. Rusie. In the work that lies ahead of him we wish him success and Godspeed. To him, as well as to Mr. Williams, the Senior Class of nineteen forty-eight wishes to dedicate this silver anniversary edition of our Blue and Gold Edelian.

How dearly enshrined in our memories are the years spent at Libbey.
The friendships made!
The fun we had!
The knowledge gained!

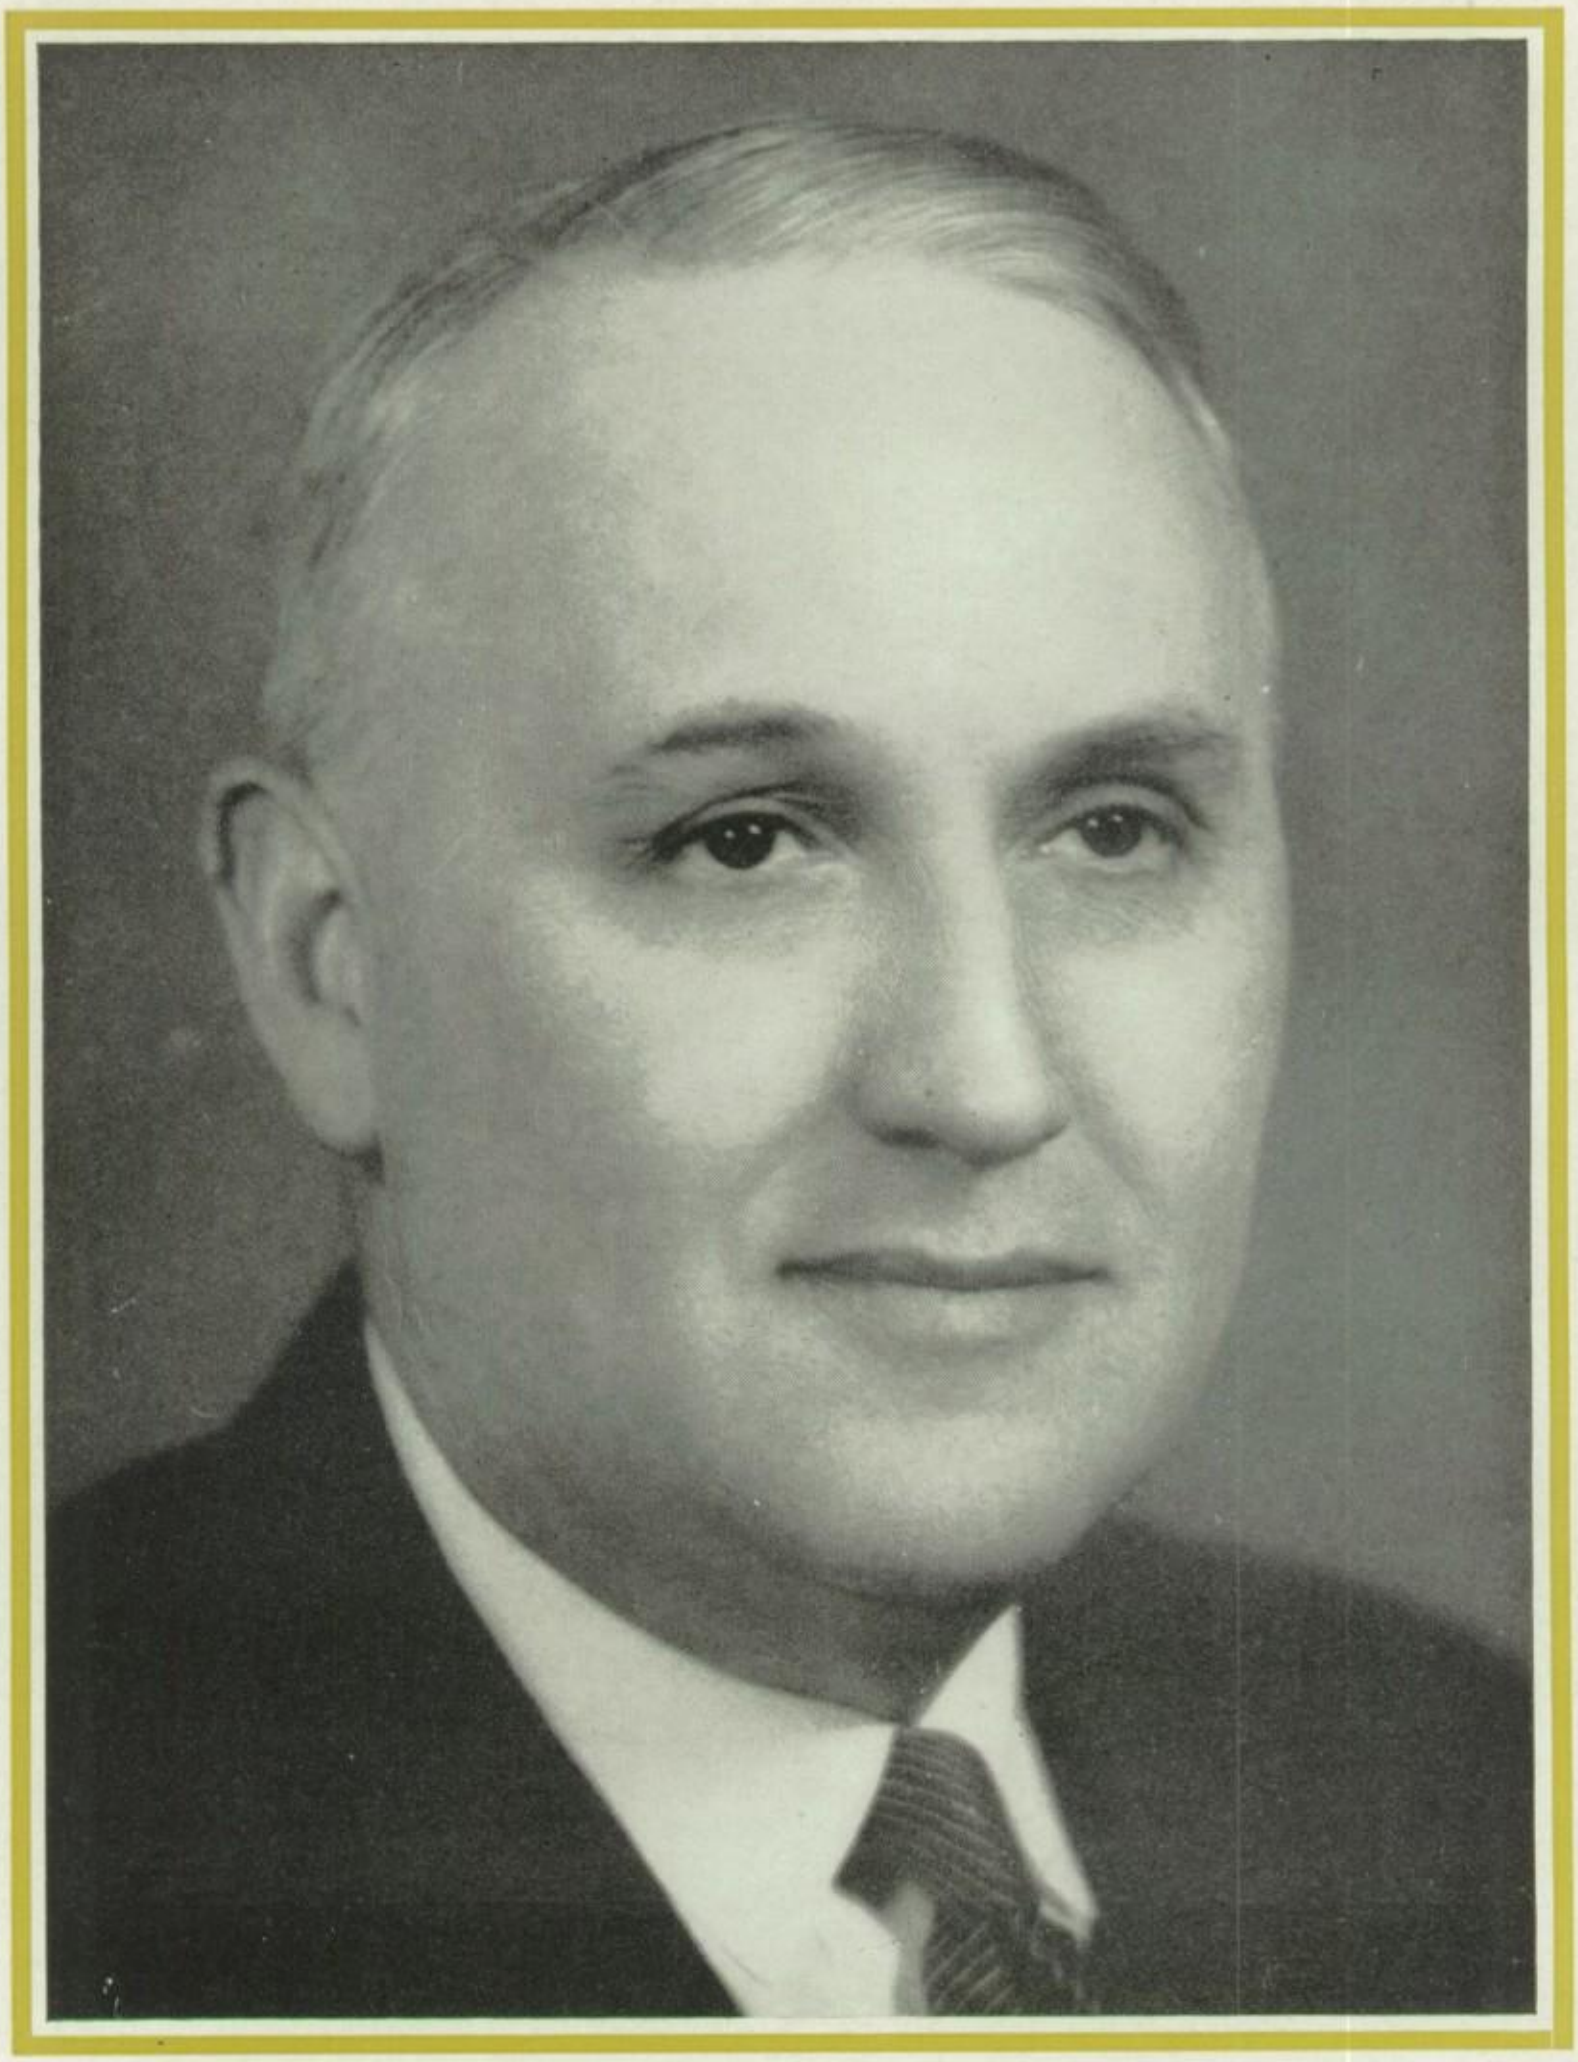
IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Dolly M. Harmeyer

Radiance

Out of the infinite was born a soul
Destined too soon this world of ours to leave;
Yet though we grieve that we must be bereft
Of one so gracious and so very kind,
We feel that knowing her has made us rich,
And every memory we have of her
Is colored by the beauty of her life.

She was a loving mother, full of dreams
And hopes and aspirations for the two
Most precious ones who were her very life.
A daughter, too, was she, most kind and dear,
Who comfort brought and sympathy and love
To both her parents. As a sister she
Was sweet and true, loyal and understanding.
To all of us she was a lovely friend,
Gentle, considerate, in thought and word.
And as we think of her, her memory
Is like the mystic beauty of the spring
With myriad echoes of eternity.



E. L. BOWSHER

The Senior Class of Nineteen Forty-Eight wishes to express its admiration and respect for Toledo's Superintendent of Schools, Mr. E. L. Bowsher.

A TRIBUTE

How may we measure the scope of a good teacher's influence? How shall we reward this marvelous power? Who can guage the result of the work of fifteen persons working consistently in a community for a quarter of a century? What hearts have been lightened by them? What characters molded? What lessons have been taught and learned?

When Libbey High School was opened in the fall of nineteen hundred twenty-three with Harold E. Williams as principal, the faculty included fifty-one members, representing ten departments. Of that original group there are fifteen members still on the staff, representing eight departments. Travel throughout te United States, Europe, and South America; hours of graduate study in both foreign and American universities; and the pursuance of hobbies for richer experiences have enabled these teachers to offer a background of a unique variety which has had a most important influence upon the school and the community. Almost all of these teachers have continued to work as advisers in extra-curricular activities; many of them have functioned as heads or chairmen of departments. Some of them have consistently produced the publications which have brought such great credit to Libbey. All of them have been loyal, steadfast, and true in their effort to promote education and make Libbey the outstanding school that it is.

The twenty-five year roll of honor includes the following teachers: W. R. Alexander and Edward Packer, Industrial Arts; Hazel Bartley, Fine Arts; Francis Boyle and Frederick Vossler, Science; Pauline E. Burton, Alma Lok, and Mary Russell, Languages; Ruth Anne Dusha, Florence Gerdes, Virginia May, and Zoe Scott, English; Ella Feller, Social Science; Mary Kelso, Health; and Isla Owens, Home Economics.

Libbey High School is proud of these fifteen faculty members and grateful to them beyond measure of expression. May they remain with us for many years, exercising the same scholarly influence and enricching us with the warmth of their friendship and their zeal for the betterment of our South Side Community.

Many Feet Have Trod These Steps To The Stadium

OUR SYMPHONY

Like a melody with a never-ending theme,
So seems the future; so is our dream.

Harmony or discord — which are we striving for in our dreams of the future? For the last few years, we, as students, have spent many hours preparing for the days which now lie ahead of us. Perhaps, now and then, our training seemed tedious and exacting. Many times we have lost sight of our goal in the endless round of duties. As we have stepped up each of the four octaves of our school life, we begin to see each note fitting into place. The drudgery is likened unto scales and exercises, but the completed product seems a beautiful symphony.

While we pause on this day for a brief interlude, we have time to catch our breath and to express our gratitude to those who have helped us produce this glorious harmony. The greatest notes in our symphony come from the guidance of our parents. To them the years of sacrifice have passed as swiftly as the wind of a summer's day. Their love and patience have known no end and we are deeply grateful for their leading hand.

The others which combine to produce this melody are our teachers and our principal, Mr. Rusie. Without these helping hands, our work would have been so much longer and harder.

As we are the last class to know the inspiration and sympathy which Mr. Williams has always extended, we wish to include him as a major chord in our lives. Our admiration and thanks know no bounds.

Now, we look over the future with, perhaps, a hint of sadness. It is a long path until we may rest and no one may turn back. To some, the beauties and wonders of the world are open wide, while to others, hardship and danger must be passed before they find their door of opportunity. However, if we have a definite goal no scale is too difficult to climb.

We step into a fast-moving, modern world. The paths of science and medicine are open to wide exploration. The fields of business and technology welcome newcomers. Our national and state governments have need of new ideas. Why can we not offer our service? Each one of us has his secret ambitions and in a democracy such as America, these ambitions may be realized. To us comes the mighty job of preserving world peace. It is a huge task. Are we prepared to accept and to conquer it?

In later years, I hope we all can pause, look back over time, and be able to say "I have done the best in my power." With God as our guiding light, how can we fail to bring the nations together in a greater harmony? Each beat represents the love which we hold in our hearts for one another. The final majestic chord may come very soon for some and others will hear the melody for many years.

Harmony or discord — which ARE we striving for in our dreams of the future?

RUTH LA BEAU, Co-Valedictorian

EDUCATION VERSUS FEAR

We the youth of America, and especially we the graduating class of 1948, who are now leaving school life to enter life's school, are faced with a vast responsibility — that of establishing the world of tomorrow.

We have witnessed a great war and have seen the horror, destruction, suffering, and death caused by this ruthless manslaughter. We have witnessed the ending of that war with joy and the hope that this war would be the last. But can it be the last if we in America, who have not been terrorized by nightly bombings, have not been classified as displaced persons, have not watched our families die of malnutrition, have so little sympathy and understanding for our fellowmen that a frequent comment in regard to the aid for Europe is, "They brought it upon themselves, now let them suffer"? Can there ever be world peace if we in our great democracy have severe discriminations against minority groups?

Great progress has been made by those before us in making all men equal before the law, giving all men an equal opportunity of free speech, religion, and education. Still the world today is in greater chaos perhaps than ever before. Why? The answer lies in the superstitions, intolerance, ignorance, and misunderstanding of the mass of people. It is, therefore, our task to see that these situations are abolished.

First, as the future leaders of our country, as the future average citizens, we must attempt to solve the troubled world's problems with unbiased minds. We must educate ourselves to overcome narrow-minded prejudices.

Then, we must enable every man to have the same opportunity for acquiring knowledge, for obtaining a job, and for taking part in government affairs through voting. Too often do we hear of students being refused admittance to a college because of their race or of their creed. This must not be allowed to continue. Education must be encouraged among all those who aspire to learn. There can only be hopes of world peace when the majority have been taught to tolerate one another's opinions and beliefs. There must no longer be backward countries whose inhabitants still live according to the superstitions of their ancestors. There must no longer be intellectual hate and looking down upon so-called inferior classes and cultures. There must be no animosities between countries because of lack of understanding and comprehending the other's problems; but a friendly feeling of cooperation and tolerance must exist among the nations of the world.

Education, then, is not a drudgery but a necessity. During the past years, we have been given the wonderful opportunity of a free education; and now, as we stand at the threshold of a new world, it is our sacred duty to use our knowledge to make that world a better one. As we leave, we pause to express our appreciation to Libbey, to our teachers, and to our principal, Mr. Rusie, who instilled in us the confidence so essential in this era of doubting and distrust.

EDELIAN

Busy as bees — these Edelian workers! Any fourth hour you'd find Miss Dusha's room buzzing with "Can you go to the printers tonight?" "Check with Miss Dusha." "Which list?" The year begins with the taking of senior pictures and the gathering of general information helpful to the class for assembling your Edelian, the book you will refer to for years to come. Before the finished product comes off the press there are photographs to assemble, visits to the printer, and last minute changes. It can easily be seen that the purpose of this class is to put out each year a better and more nearly perfect Edelian.

Thanks for your much prized Edelian goes first to Miss Dusha, the capable advisor of this group, and next to the student directors, who were Suzanne Sears, editor-in-chief; Judy Shunk, associate editor; Marilyn Collins, Joanne Good, and Carol Spangler,senior editors; Mary Campbell, Mary Ann Hamann, and Barbara Ruch, class editors. Credit for the faculty section goes to Barbara Emerson and Gloria Pizza. Ruth Wohlfort and Joanna Stein did a great job on the club section and Mary Beier and Joanne Martin were responsible for the layouts and snapshots. Capably covering the sports section were Jim Watson and Ronny Bowman.

Mr. Charles Martin and his assistants: advertising manager, Betty Howard, and circulation managers, Phyllis Martin and Ruth La Beau, managed the financial arrangements for the Edelian along with the difficult job of circulation. Our most sincere thanks go especially to Mr. Rusie, our principal, without whose help the book would have been impossible in this twenty-fifth year of the Edelian's history.

CRYSTAL

Oh, how everyone looks forward to getting his Crystal! During the second hour class on the day set aside for distribution, all the classes are in an uproar. The teachers have found that it is hopeless to try to quiet the kids. First the activities tickets are collected, taken down to Mr. Martin's room, and exchanged for the papers. The unlucky students who have no activities tickets must wait patiently for the members of the Crystal staff to come to the room.

Most of the students at Libbey don't realize how much actual hard work goes into the publication of a newspaper. The members of the staff are always glad to get news from the students. To encourage this, they visit the classrooms during the second hour about two weeks before distribution. All the work on the Crystal is done under the competent guidance of Miss Gerdes.

Working very hard to make the 1948 issues a complete success were Jennie Huls and Dick Dunham, co-editors in chief; Lois Schmidt, assistant editor; Stanley Stewart and Glenn Irwin, sports editors; Virginia Driver and Arletta Ledyard, news editors; Roberta Eldredge and Shirley Ufer, exchange editors; Anne Leppert, picture editor; Laveeda Rose, feature editor; and Mary Ann Dunlap and Myrtle Hartford, club editors. Thanks, kids, for a swell newspaper we are all proud of!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

What greater achievement can any student claim than that of being chosen a member of the National Honor Society? It is when one is inducted into the society that he is able to realize and appreciate the honor which has been bestowed upon him. To be eligible for membership, a senior must be in the upper third of his class and show to the school habits of leadership, character, and service. Eligibility for juniors is based strictly on scholarship and only the upper fifteenth of the class can be considered for membership. Therefore, the finest and most outstanding students are recognized.

Each year National Honor plans some activity, given during school time, in order to earn money to be used in a scholarship fund. Many of the members also took part in the various scholarship tests offered. They also served the school by conducting the junior and senior class officer elections and the Student Council election. The juniors aid the school by ushering at the Baccalaureate service and Commencement.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Members are privileged to wear the pin of the society. The keystone and flaming torch are the distinguishing features of the emblem. The keystone represents the stable foundation upon which our education must be erected. The flaming torch is the emblem of the society's purpose—ever to hold erect the flaming light of truth, to lead that others may follow in the light, to keep burning in our school a high ambition, to approach the highest ideals of life, and to serve loyally, faithfully, and unselfishly. In addition to the privilege of wearing the pin, a member is also entitled to the society's membership card, which is recognized as a permanent hall permit.

Being elected an officer in this organization is indeed a responsibility and honor, as each member is considered a leader in the school. A wise selection was made by electing Glen Irwin who capably filled the office of president and who was assisted by Virginia Peters, vice-president; Ruth Reichardt, secretary-treasurer; and Sam Nakagawa, sergeant-at-arms. Much credit for the success of the club is given to Mr. Lynn, the adviser.

FORUM LITERARY SOCIETY

The Forum stands for fun, but first they stand for Libbey. Starting off with fun, a roast was held at Farnsworth Park in October. Chairman Dale Dick and his committee, Bob Smith, Don Cosgrove, Jim Watson, Dave Saunders, and Bill Niehous, worked hard on the plans for the roast. Their hard work was rewarded by a successful affair. Another roast was given in the Spring.

On Valentine's Day, February 14, the Forum presented its annual dance, "Cupid's Caper," at Calumet Temple. The committee included Leo Poenicke, chairman, assisted by Bob Peters, Dave Saunders, Paul Bade, and Jim Findley. Paul Mabie and his orchestra furnished the music, setting the background for a grand evening of entertainment. A banquet honoring the senior members and a very capable advisor, Mr. Vander, was given at the end of the year. Much credit should be given to Jim Feltz, president; Leo Poenicke, vice-president; Homer Gilbert, secretary; Dick Bartell, treasurer; and Freddy Grossman, sergeant-at-arms.

QUILL AND DAGGER LITERARY SOCIETY

This year again, as always, the Q.D.'s exhibited the will-to-serve and the promotion of leadership. The society, under its officers Bob Coleman, president; Jack Patterson, vice-president; Jack Edwards, secretary; John Earlywine, treasurer; and Jack Rynn, sergeant-at-arms, opened its social affairs with a dance after the Woodward basketball game. This success was followed by the ever-popular "Q.D. Shindig" the annual dance. This Maytime event was under the chairmanship of Jack Patterson who was assisted by Ronny Bowman, Paul Phillips, and Jerry Reiter.

With the pledging of members by the committee of Bob Coleman, chairman, Jack Rynn, Joe Fosbender, Jack Wainwright, Elmer Fink, and Dick Penrod, new ideas for pledgework were originated. Work for the teachers and the school was approved and acclaimed by all and the Q.D.'s had advanced another new idea for Libbey. With the year near closing, and the roast completed, the fellowship and good times of the society, as a group, were ended with its senior farewell banquet in honor of the senior members of the group and its very capable and popular adviser, Mr. Robinson.

PERICLEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The peppy Peries began a wonderful year with the "Peri Pep Party" by cheering the football team on to victory over their toughest opponents, the Waite High "Indians." This mass meeting was full of fun and song the whole way through, and ended with the presentation of a huge horseshoe of chrysanthemums to the team. The early fall saw the Peries busy planning a roast at Farnsworth Park, and a Bridge Party in the school gym headed by Suzy Sears. In keeping with the joyful Christmas spirit of glittering lights and mistletoe, the Peries presented their annual December dance, the "Peri Promenade," at the Woman's Building under the direction of Joanne Martin. Jewel-like Christmas trees and mellow music by Paul Mabie's Orchestra all contributed to make it one of the highlights of the year at Libbey. An initiation tea in March made the fine new group of pledges officially members. This happy and successful year was made complete with a Mother's Tea later in the spring followed by a wonderful banquet and dance in May, honoring the new officers and bidding the old a sad farewell.

Social activities weren't the only things the Peries were interested in. Enthusiastic literary meetings were well planned by the censor, Mary Beier. At Thanksgivingtime the girls spread joy by making favors for hospital trays. All the Peries know and are proud to admit that their wonderful adviser, Miss Dusha, was a very necessary part of their successful year. The officers were Marilyn Collins, president; Joanne Martin, vice-president; Suzanne Sears, treasurer; Mary Beier, censor; Barbara Campbell, recording secretary; Mary Katz, corresponding secretary; Mary Hamann, chaplain.

PHILALETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

To accentuate the feudin' and fussin' that always takes place before a Waite-Libbey football game, the Phils made their Yokum vs. Scragg mass meeting a long to be remembered one. Fran Harris, as chairman of the committee, portrayed Pansy Yokum in top "Dogpatch" style. Following the September 26 mass meeting was a roast at Side-Cut Park on October 4, with Jeanne Stewart planning the affair for the girls and their dates. As a project of good will for the year, two hundred Thanksgiving Day favors for hospital trays were made, a Christmas basket for a needy family was filled, and boxes of toys were sent to war-stricken Italian children.

On December 4, a faculty tea honoring Mr. Rusie, Miss Kanney and Mr. Osgood was given in the school library. All the senior members served on the committee headed by Lois Ann Eden. Heralding the new semester was the annual dance, "Carousel Capers," on January 29. The colorful theme was carried out with clowns, circus wagons, and animals by Marilyn Heuerman and her committee. Jack Runyan and his orchestra furnished the smooth music. To honor their mothers, the Phils held a tea on March 17 in the school cafeteria with Geri Studer, Barbara Green, and Fran Harris as speakers. The final event of the year was the Spring Banquet. Betty Grills and Nancy Miller made the arrangements for this event honoring the senior members. Success was evident for the year once again and much praise can be given Miss Gerdes, Miss Allen, and Miss Cooper for their aid. The cabinet for the year included Joanne Good, president; Marilyn Heuerman, vice-president; Virginia Allmon, recording secretary; Fran Harris, corresponding secretary; Jeanne Stewart, treasurer; Janet Seeman, chaplain; Jackie Mangas, senior censor; and Alice White, junior censor.

"Nihil sine labore"—nothing without work—is the motto of the Zets, whose primary purpose is to promote an interest in literature and to teach good fellowship and the value of cooperation to the girls who comprise the club. The theme, "Charming Women — Past and Present," motivated the many literary programs of the year.

Initiating the social events was the roast at Fort Meigs, directed by Mary Ann Dunlap and Myrtle Hartford. The fantastic "Midnight Masquerade" added zest and variety to the football mass meeting programs and was well planned by Pat Krall. In February the Zets innovated the Tri-Lit Tea to honor the Peries and the Phils. Lois Leffel was chairman of the March dance, "The Aqua Ramble," which featured the orchestra of Bob Jay and his Six Bars of Harmony in providing a joyous evening for those who attended. A tea to honor the mothers and the annual banquet highlighted the later part of Spring. The advisers are Miss DeLisle, Miss Henderson, Miss Murbach, and Miss Eberth. The officers were Agatha Bruno, president; Lois Leffel, vice-president; Shirley Jay, recording secretary; Mary Ann Dunlap, treasurer; Virginia Peters, chaplain; Nancy Strange, sergeant-at-arms; Betty Howard, Ruth Reichardt, historians and censors.

Row I: Vernice Britton, Mary Friend, Pattie Dienst, Arletta Ledyard, Pat Patrick, Phyllis Martin, Anne Leppert, Jennie Huls, Fran Harris, Yvonne Willems, Jean Hauri, Ida Mae Hirauye. SENIOR Y-TEENS

The ever active and sparkling Senior Y-Teen Club, as usual, led in services rendered to the school and community. As an organization which has a long established record of service, a sale of chrysanthemums for the annual Libbey-DeVilbiss game, was their initial project. An enlightening book review given by Mrs. Paul Alexander of the story "Together," was under sponsorship of the club. Following this event was the dinner held November 19 in the school cafeteria, honoring our varsity football team for their glorious past year record. The festive Christmas season was enhanced by the Senior Friendship girls who sold mistletoe and popcorn balls and brightened the school lobby by an adorned Christmas tree. During the holiday vacation, several girls packed food for the needy Toledo families at the Volunteers of America headquarters.

December 29, was the scene of a joint dance with the Libbey Hi-Y, held at Park Congregational Church. As is the custom during the Lenten season, the Friendship Club and Hi-Y together presented the Friday religious services. A charming tea and banquet were the closing event of the year. All these activities were made possible through the competent guidance of the adviser, Miss Ruth Allen, and also by the capable leadership of the officers: Lois Ann Eden, president; Lois Schmidt, vice-president; Barbara Emerson, recording secretary; Carol Nelson, corresponding secretary; Jean Hauri, treasurer; Betty Holtgrieve, chaplain.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS

"Service and friendship to all." This year the Junior Y-Teens have carried out this motto under the direction of Miss Grace Irwin, adviser; Elaine Hirschy, president; Nancy Hadley, vice-president; Dorothy Powers, recording secretary; Nancy Miller, corresponding secretary; Janet Kesling, treasurer; and Lois Snider, chaplain.

Their social activities started with a program of music and singing with Mrs. Schell of the Y.W.C.A. as the director. The Christmas party was conducted in fine order with Mrs. Allan, teacher of cosmetology, as guest speaker. To serve others as is their purpose, they helped decorate the school for loyalty week and to add cheer for Christmas. On January 15, Mrs. Hoffman, who has spent some time in China, talked to the girls about a very important subject — World Friendship. The annual banquet held by the three Y-Teens Clubs ended the year's activities. Surely all this cannot add up to anything but happiness in the girls' minds when they look back to their junior year.

Row I: Laura Hoffman, Mary Lou Hawley, Patsy Sanzenbacker, Myra Sours, Nancy Rampendahl, Barbara Green, Joyce Franklin, Marsha Collins, Joanne Surtman. Row II: Catherine Rotondo, Carol Breitner, Barbara Trumbull, Gerry Diaz, Miss Black, Fay Diestel, Barbara Bunge, Bea Birkenkamp, Martha Freeman. SOPHOMORE Y-TEENS

With the purpose being to unite its members in a spirit of friendliness and service, the Sophomore Y-Teens, under the leadership of Mrs. Black, have completed another successful year. Their very able officers were president, June Foltz; vice-president, Donna Jeack; recording secretary, Nancy Herschy; corresponding secretary, Beverly Jay; treasurer, Carol Cooper; and chaplain, Barbara Bunge.

This year, as last, they got off to a slow start, but have gone far in their work. The program committee planned a series of tours and speakers which included a tour through the Blade, Tiedtke's, and Page Dairy. Surely with such a record as the Sophomore Y-Teens have, they will always be successful in whatever they do.

Row I: Glenn Irwin, Dave Kaczala, Albert Sawyer, Herral Long, Robert Leon, Jim Stambaugh, Jack Edwards, Stanley Stewart, Robert Gillette, Kenneth Kramp, Jack Wainwright. Row II: Mr. Rusie, Paul Phillips, Leo Poenicke, Ronny Bowman, Joe Fosbender, Fred Leydorf, Edward Moser, Jim Watson, Bob Smith, Dick Dunham, Mr. Kiefer. Row III: Steve Tryc, Donald Grey, Frank Gwodz, Wayne Seppeler, Carlton Heckrotte, Dick Heuerman, John Harrold, Dale Dick, R. C. Young, Jerry Huebner, Robert Peters, Vern Fauble.

SENIOR HI-Y — JUNIOR HI-Y

The Hi-Y provides a wholesome and stimulating social, educational and religious environment for any student of Libbey who wishes to become a member of the group. The club still maintains the high standards set by Mr. Harold E. Williams who organized the club when Libbey was opened as a school. The Hi-Y is a 25 year club of Libbey with a continuous record of endeavor and achievement. In cooperation with the Senior Y-Teens, the Hi-Y sponsored religious services during the Lenten season. Among the social activities was a combined party of the Junior and Senior Hi-Y and Y-Teens at the Park Congregational Church. Dick Heuerman, president; Wayne Seppeler, vice-president; Glenn Irwin, secretary-treasurer; Dick Dunham, chaplain; were selected as officers; and with the helpful guidance of Mr. Keifer, their adviser, the Senior Hi-Y was once again an outstanding club.

Working closely with the seniors, the Junior Hi-Y attempted to carry on their motto of "clean living, clean athletics, clean speech, and clean scholarship." The officers who served throughout the year were president, Herman Kahler; vice-president, Paul Geyer; secretary-treasurer, Don Rien; sergeant-at-arms, Charles Bowes, and Mr. Vander ably fulfilled his position as club adviser. The Mothers and Sons Banquet climaxed the year's activities. This anticipated event was held in the Libbey Cafeteria and the Senior Y-Teens waited on tables. The Reverend Lloyd Holloway was the speaker.

SOPHOMORE HI-Y — FRESHMAN HI-Y

Adding their enthusiasm to that of the Senior and Junior Hi-Y, the members of the Sophomore Hi-Y tried hard throughout the year to learn the standards and ideals of the Hi-Y club and to set forth their best character, good scholarship, and service to the school. The officers elected were Jim Findley, president; Paul Baldwin, vice-president; Bob Houser, chaplain; and Dick Cheney, sergeant-at-arms. Responsible for the work of training these young boys to uphold the traditions of the organization were the capable advisers, Mr. Jorris and Mr. Felkey.

In order that they may perpetuate the splendid ideals of the organization, a group of boys was selected from the freshmen class to carry on the tradition of Hi-Y clubs. Even though this group of young boys has just been recruited, they have already put forth their most earnest and conscientious efforts to continue the work of the Hi-Y. Much of the success of the club is credited to its new officers: Kenneth Crossman, president; Ronald Clark, vice-president; Dominic Bruno, secretary; Jim Neal, treasurer; Jordon Orbesen, sergeant-at-arms; and Martin Johnson, chaplain. The club was capably advised by Mr. Jorris, Mr. Vanderwulp and Mr. Keifer.

DEBATE CLUB—FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Since both the Debate Society and the Future Teachers of America are comparatively new organizations in Libbey, they both have the task of proving their importance to the school. The Debate Society was organized to promote and stimulate interest in public speaking, oratory, and debating. Any student is eligible for membership, and proficiency in public speaking is not necessary. Mr. Baker served as adviser of the club and the officers were Jerry Canty, president; Bob Bunting, vice-president; Janice Weaver, secretary; Don Hill, treasurer; and Bob Gillette, chaplain and sergeant-at-arms.

The Future Teachers of America, Libbey's newest organization, was formed to give students a better understanding of the field of education, and to interchange ideas between the students and those already in the profession. The Libbey chapter was named the Harold E. Williams Chapter in honor of Mr. Williams, our beloved former principal. Highlighting the social events was the Installation Tea on February 10, with Jennie Huls as chairman. Anne Leppert, president; Jennie Huls, vice-president; Ruth Wohlfort, secretary; Phyllis Martin, treasurer; Wilma Hischka, historian; Dorothy Powers, Librarian; Joanna Stein, parliamentarian; and Nancy Miller, song leader, proved to be very capable officers; but the club could not have been nearly so successful without Mr Loy Rusie, Miss Ruth Anne Dusha, and Miss Irene Foster, the advisers. As part of the program of work, many of the girls have acted as class sitters when a teacher has had to leave her class for a short time. The year was brought to its climax with a banquet and installation of new officers in May.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatics Club attempts to discover and utilize dramatic talents of the students and give them pracical experience in play production. In addition to this the club teaches the intricacies of the stage, scenic design, lighting, sound, and the business management involved in play production, such as advertising, finance, and props. In order to develop the creative talent of its members the club presented the annual one-act plays. They featured in the fall "Wild Hobby Horses," and in the spring of this year they presented "Ringing in the Groom."

Beginning the social events of the year, a hay ride was held at Pearson Park in November, which proved to be a most hilarious affair. The club also aided the Junior and Senior classes in producing their plays. The senior play was "It's Spring Again" by George Batson; the junior play, "Spring Green" by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements, authors of the famous play "Harriet." In spring the annual banquet was held, an affair the seniors in the group especially looked forward to. The offices were capably handled by Lena DiTerlizzi, president; Robert Leon, vice-president; Charlotte Gaynor, treasurer; Mary Lou Bellingham, recording secretary; and Miss Costigan, whose advising ability made the final touch in the club's success.

SPANISH CLUB — FRENCH CLUB

Singing songs to a Latin American rhythm was the program of La Tertulia Castellana this year. Only third year students in the study of Spanish are eligible for membership in this fine organization. Interest was stimulated greatly by the songs which were sung in Spanish and capably lead by Jane Garcia. Under the adviser, Miss Mary Russell, and the fine cabinet consisting of Zoe Ann Salsberry, president; Marian Pindoley, vice-president; Gloria Pizza, secretary-treasurer, the purpose of the club, to create and increase an interest in the Spanish language, was well accomplished.

"Au coeur vaillant rien impossible"—To the valiant heart nothing is impossible. This inspiring motto of Le Cercle Francais helps to promote interest in the study of French and to acquaint students with the customs and traditions of the people of France. Programs this year included reports on French civilization, musical numbers illustrating the works of French composers, the singing of French folk songs, and the playing of French games by the club members. A better understanding of the people of France was encouraged through correspondence with French students. A Christmas party planned by Helen Hauser and Dick Dunham and a banquet in the spring were activities of the club this year. With the assistance of Miss Krueger and the officers who were Paulyne Morgan, president; Patricia Houser, vice-president; Jane Crook, secretary; Patricia Hoffman, treasurer; Barbara Taylor and Pat Richard, censors; Donald Shanteau, reporter, a successful year was had.

RED CROSS — CLASSICAL HONOR SOCIETY

The two outstanding attributes of the Libbey Red Cross and the Classical Honor Society are service and scholarship. Pledging service and friendship, the Red Cross gave their time to help many people throughout the world. One of their many acts of kindness was packing Christmas boxes to send to desolate children in war-torn countries. Many helpless children received assistance from our Red Cross during the Christmas season. Ex-servicemen in convalescent hospitals were provided with means of recreation by the Red Cross. Valentines and favors were sent to Libbey servicemen and to the sick and aged in our local hospitals. The society was guided by Miss Virginia May, and its officers were Teresa Pierce, president; Mary Ann Hartrauft, vice-president; Barbara Eldredge, secretary-treasurer.

To stimulate scholarship and interest in the classics is the purpose of the Classical Honor Society. Under the fine leadership of their adviser, Mrs. Pauline Emerson Burton, and their cabinet consisting of Agatha Bruno, president; Howard Hilfinger, vice-president; and Albert Sawyer, secretary-treasurer, the group has promoted the study of Latin, extensively. Further interest was awakened in the club by the awarding at commencement of the Eta Sigma Phi medal, a national collegiate honorary Latin fraternity. A trophy was also given to a pupil who in his four year study of Latin had achieved excellence in scholarship and had given service to the school.

STUDENT COUNCIL — LIB

The purpose of the Student Council is to discuss and act upon any important controversy or question pertaining to the school. The council consists of members elected from each class; four seniors, four juniors, two sophomores, two freshmen. Various members of the council attended the monthly meeting of the Toledo District Council, which is held at different high schools of the city. One of the activities of the council this year was planning Libbey Loyalty Week which was held before the Waite game. Various committees looked into situations such as noise in the auditorium. The council was very ably assisted by their adviser, Mr. Lynn. The capable officers were Bob Smith, president; Lois Leffel, vice-president; Alice White, secretary-treasurer.

To afford the art students an opportunity to express, in a graphic way, their ideas about Libbey is the purpose of the Lib staff of 1948. All the work in the Lib is done by students. This includes the copy, the making of the stencils, the mimeographing, binding and last, but not least, the circulation. The staff this year is Bill Benson, editor-in-chief; assisted by Jean Benson, Carol Cousino, Richard Fellhauer, Frank Gwodz, and Roger Smith. Miss Bartley is the friendly advisor who helps the staff in every way possible.

ACTIVITIES — DEAN'S AIDES, OFFICE WORKERS

The Activities Department and the Deans' Aides are two very active and very necessary groups in the administration of Libbey High School. The business office of the Athletic and Activities Department at Libbey is permanently located in Room 109, although the workers are likely to be found working anywhere in the building. The purpose of this group is to promote interest and participation in events throughout the school year. For their social events they have an annual Christmas exchange and a weiner roast. The students working under Mr. Martin are Betty Howard, advertising manager; Phyllis Martin and Ruth LaBeau, circulation managers; and Shirley Jay and Ruth Reichardt, activities managers. Learning to carry on the work in the coming years are Lois Edwards, Alice White, Lois Netermyer, and Shirley Schnell, junior assistants; and Shirley Ward, Shirley Krall, Lois Klosterhaus, and Sue Hockett, sophomore assistants.

The deans' aides render a very important service to the school. They are constantly collecting attendance, filing excuses, checking absences, telephoning, and helping Miss Kanney and Mr. Osgood with things in general. The girls are chosen by their scholarship, efficiency, and dependability. Not only do these girls perform necessary duties for the school and attendance department, but they receive very valuable training of working with people and learning how an office is run. During the winter the girls and both deans were invited for a get-together by Miss Brown, the former dean. In the spring, the two wonderful deans planned a picnic for all the girls to end a perfect year.

PROJECTION CLUB — COMMERCIAL CLUB

Allied with the business world is the field of photography, which has shown such a marked advance recently. One of its phases is the visual education program, provided for us by the Projection Club, whose showing of educational movies has helped the pupils gain a better knowledge of the subjects they are studying. Although no social program was planned this year, the group's program of work consisted of the operation and working knowledge of 16-millimeter projectors. Some of the unusual and important movies were "Romeo and Juliet," "Westminster Abbey," "Brotherhood of Man," "Romance of Radium," and "Lady of the Lake." Mr. Lincke, their adviser, is assisted by the following heads of the hours: first hour, Dave Kaczala; second, Bob Johnson; third, Chuck Riley; fourth, Frank Gwodz; fifth, Bill Riddle; and sixth, John Kirkpatrick.

One of the most active clubs in Libbey is the Commercial Club. Its main purpose is to familiarize members with business. A very important factor that helped to make the club's year a success was the fostering of social activities under the guidance of Mrs. Flatz and Miss Cooper. The officers included Edna Strong, president; Shirley Erd, vice-president; Helen Ritter, secretary; Mary Campbell, treasurer; and Carol Spangler, reporter.

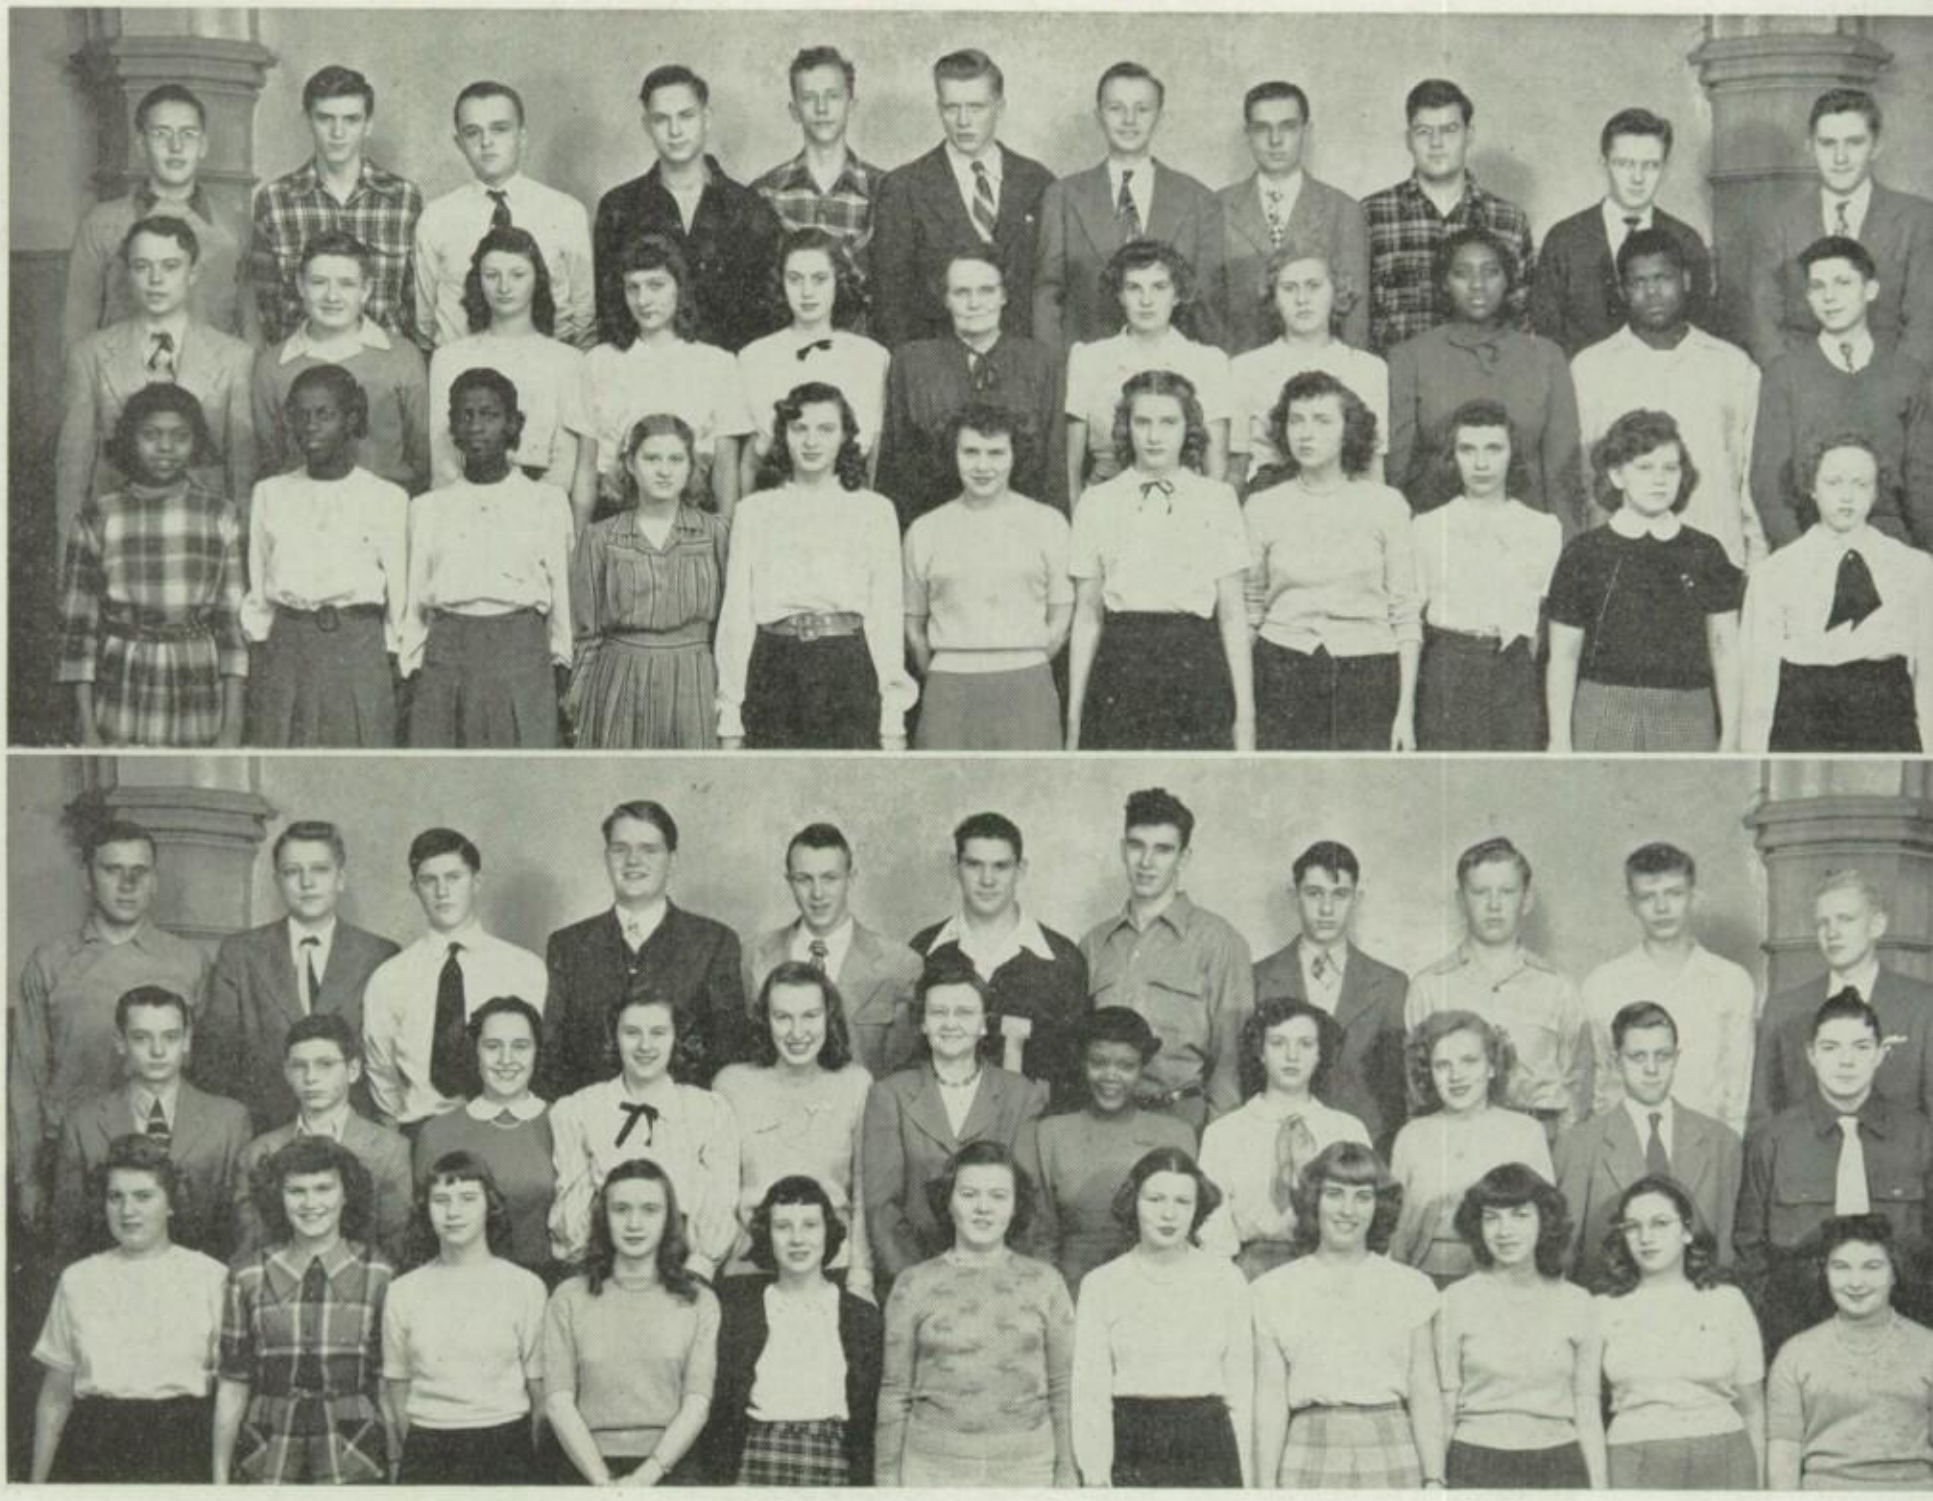
COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club started off the year by taking a trip to Cole's House Party, a radio program. In October a Hallowe'en party was held in the Libbey gym and in November a Thanksgiving party was enjoyed. The annual skating party was held at the Coliseum Skating Arena early in February. Other projects that the club undertook were the sale of Defense Stamps, a potato chip sale, and a candy sale.

A Mother-Daughter Tea high-lighted the year for the Commercial Club. Many weeks were spent in preparation for this event, with Carol Spangler as chairman. The program included songs by Bea Birkenkamp and Teresa Pierce; an original poem by Jerry Diaz; and a review of her experiences in China by Laura Hoffman, whose family lived in Changsha as part of the U.N.R.A.H. project. Her Chinese costume, colorful and lovely, charmed the audience as well as her informal and gracious speech. Other speakers of the year were Mrs. Margaret Dwyer, head of the Distributive Education of Toledo Public Schools; and Mr. George Kiefer, who talked about Christmas. The year ended with a banquet which was planned by Shirley Erd.



Row I: Evelyn Mitchell, Druscilla Gibson, Equlla Gibson, Madonna Gullian, Betty Grills, Nina Ford, Joan Erd, Norma Sielschutt, Alice Bochk, Jean Connors, Marjorie Ryan. BIOLOGY CLUB

Here is a club for nature loving students who wish to learn more about biology and spend more than class time with it. The aim of this club, which is to further the study of biology, was advanced throughout the year under the capable leadership of its two advisers, Miss Fiedler and Miss Pickard, along with the cooperation of the cabinet, Vern Fauble, president; Betty Grills, vice-president; Pattie Dienst, secretary; and Dick Gerst, treasurer.

Betty Grills, who was chairman of all social events throughout the year, planned, along with her committee, a roast for the pledges, and they were to find the names of all the animals at the Toledo Zoo at Walbridge Park. Special reports were given by members of the club. Hans Lee gave an interesting talk about some of his special pets, which are "Hampsters." Wilma Hischka, a very active member in the group, spoke about the "Preying Mantise." Book reports played an important part in this year's work, and Jo Ann Hein reported to the group on "The Elephant Dance." Towards the end of the year, Jim Wilkinson gave a talk on the timely subject of "Mosquito Control." A very fine banquet ended the year's activities for the biology club.

ENGINEERS — ARCHITECTS

The Engineers and Architects, the mechanics of the school, are always trying to better themselves in every undertaking. Under their very capable adviser, Mr. Sterling, and their cabinet of Don Noethen, president, and Harry Michalak, treasurer, they greatly furthered their interest in engineering. Among their social events came the annual spring party. Not being all social, however, they visited many plants and factories and completed data on all they saw. The Engineers can be justly proud of their fine work and record.

"To improve in the knowledge of and ability in architecture" is the purpose of the Architects Club of Libbey. Though only reorganized two years ago, the club is going strong again. Donald White, president; Steve Tryc, vice-president; Ronnie Long, secretary; Bernard Simon, treasurer; and Chuck Bowes, sergeant-at-arms, tried to carry out the purpose of the club. The motto of the club is "Architecture is the background of all art." With Mr. Packer as their capable adviser the club will continue to achieve success in the future.

CHOIR

Libbey is proud to have in its possession one of the best choirs throughout the city. As in the preceding years, the choir has brought praise and distinction once again to the school. This fame was acquired through tedious hours of work preparing programs which the members presented to the Toledo Women's Club, downtown churches, and the Peristyle of the Art Museum. During the Christmas season the choir gave a special program of Christmas carols which was broadcast from Baker's second floor window. At various times throughout the year, the group presented programs at many junior high and elementary schools. During the Lenten services in the spring, they prepared special anthems for the students.

This group of talented young people was under the efficient direction of Mr. Harold McClure. The capable officers elected were Robert Coleman, president; Harry Broadway, vice-president; Nancy Strang, secretary; Elmer Fink, treasurer; Betty Weber, assistant conductor; and Janet Seaman, pianist.

Is it any wonder that Libbey is proud of her band with its outstanding music, members, and director. This fast moving group with their blue and gold uniforms are quite a spectacle either on the football field or on the stage. However, this band has not achieved success without hard work and many hours of strenuous drilling under the capable direction and untiring efforts of Mr. Harold McClure. Their program of work included playing for football games in the fall, giving concerts for some of the junior high schools in our city to interest these pupils in music, participating in the All-City Band concert in the Peristyle of the Toledo Art Museum in May, and a spring concert for the benefit of the school.

Our band was under the able guidance of Ronald Chambers, drum major, and its officers Leonard Mierzejewski, president; Anne Miller, vice-president; Nancy Strang, secretary-treasurer; and Stanley Konieczka, sergeant-at-arms. What would our band be without our lovely majorettes? Why, almost nothing, because it is these peppy girls who add just the right amount of color to this organization. Nancy Strang, Barbara Emerson, Ruth Lockwood, Carol Eschedor, Marion Pindoley, and Donna Peterson were the year's majorettes.

Row I: Marsha Collins, Rosemary Gilsdorf, Yvonne Willems, Donna Langel, Helen Delores, Barbara Norris, Phil Litten, Rosebud Lutz, Donna Daunhauer, Florine Barlow, Helen Courtad. Row II: Jo Santelli, Elizabeth Garwood, DeEtte McKinstry, Betty Levons, Marilyn Mallett, Miss Owen, Miss Murbach, Alice Brandhuber, Marion Mucci, Nancy Sanzenbacher, Rita Dominique. Row III: Mary Wenzel, Rosemary Cousino, Nancy Simon, Ellen Burnside, Arlene McCall, Jane Bender, Carol Breitner, Carolyn Graves, Rose Rosinski, Marsha Waite, Lois Pasch.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB — G.A.A.

A club which emphasizes the importance of leadership and community activity among the girls of Libbey is the Home Economics Club. Realizing the essential part "The Home" plays in the world of today, the girls decided to use this topic as their theme and the members listened to many interesting talks dealing with this subject. One of the guest speakers was Mrs. Michalse, who spoke about "Personal Grooming" and also demonstrated her beauty products. Among the social events was a skating party held at the Coliseum with Shirley Putbrese as chairman of the committee. Much credit for the success of the club must be given to Miss Murbach, Miss Owen, and Miss Miller, the advisers, as well as president, DeEtte McKinstry; vice-president, Florine Barlow; secretary, Carolyn Graves; treasurer, Ellen Burnside; and reporter, Betty Ann Garwood, who served as officers for the year.

What could be a finer complement to homemaking than interest in physical culture. For this purpose prevailing friendliness is the theme of the Girls' Athletic Association. It welcomes to its ranks anyone—from the shy, green freshman to the dignified senior. All girls play together in the various sports which the seasons offer.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The G. A. A. this year was efficiently guided by Pat Krall, president; Barbara Bunting, vice-president; Wilma Hischka, secretary; Marilyn Jones, treasurer; Miss Myers and Miss Maher, advisers. A recreational sports program, including table tennis, shuffleboard, badminton, and archery, began the year. Assisting the shufflers with their shuffling and the William Tells with their bows and arrows were some of our own Libbey letter girls. This group of letter girls included Pat Krall, Gladys Bourn. Vernice Britton, Ann Bumpus, Vivian Pearson, Mary Friend, Martha Glanzman, Sally Vanyo, Barbara Bunting, Yvonne Prior, Virginia Peters, and Ann Miller.

Basketballs and volleyballs replaced bows and arrows when the weather drove the girls indoors for the winter. Monday and Friday nights in the gym were regular beehives of activity. During the winter, several tournaments were played with teams grouped according to ability. In March, ten senior G. A. A. members represented Libbey in an all-city Play Day at DeVilbiss. In the spring, softball was the main activity. The year ended with the annual roast at Walbridge Park. Between hotdogs, letters were presented to the girls who earned their awards this year.

DR. CHARLES H. WILLIAMS

Respected and admired by all who are concerned with Libbey High School, Dr. Williams, one of the Cowboy's greatest boosters, has again this year, as always, given invaluable assistance in the form of gifts and time. Not only are athletics benefited by his kindness, but the school as a whole. At the completion of each basketball and football season, the whole school looks forward to the presentation of the "Dr. Williams Most Valuable Player Trophy," elected by the popular vote of the student body. One of the highlights of the school year is the annual Door Prize Show, also sponsored by Dr. Williams. At each graduation a senior boy and a senior girl receive a Dr. Williams' Honor Trophy for scholastic achievement and service to the school. Libbey will never forget her generous friend, Dr. Williams.

HERMAN HARDING

Coach Harding has a splendid record at Libbey. In prewar days he was an assistant to Coach Houser and turned out many fine teams and players. He retired and then in 1944 returned and coached the lightweights to two consecutive city championships. In 1946 he was appointed head varsity coach and produced an undefeated city championship team which claimed the mythical state title. His 1947 edition of the Cowboys tied for the city championship to keep up the fine record. Everyone concerned with Libbey knows of Coach Harding's work and wishes him continuing success.

Majewski goes off tackle for another gain.

Director of Athletics

The students of Libbey enjoy the athletic contests and the many activities that are presented at Libbey, yet they do not realize that each activity means long hours of work for somebody. Charles R. Martin, director of athletics and activities, is the backbone of the administration department which does all the work in preparing for these programs. As in years before, Mr. Martin produced the football programs which were a great credit to the school. All the schedules for the athletic contests are prepared by Mr. Martin and his assistant, Orville Henrion. Among their many duties has come also the task of keeping books and supervising the equipment. In the athletic set-up are included Dr. R. C. Young, Dr. R. D. Ladd, and Dr. Carbin. Our teams' injuries are taken care of by these fine doctors. Libbey has always been the leader in everything they have undertaken, and with these men in the administration will continue to be tops.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The defending champion Golden Cowboys opened their season with a 34-13 win over Akron South. The outstanding play of Phillips and Sarchiz helped turn the tide. The first league encounter, with Central, saw the Cowboys win 26-13 behind the steady play of Majewski, Crooks, Fosbender, and Sarchiz. The first of two clashes with Waite saw the boys from Libbey lose a close one 14-7, despite the first-class play of Penrod, Palmer, and Broadway; a last period touchdown meant the difference. Their third league encounter again brought victory as the Cowboys came out on the long end of a 27-0 score; fine play by Wainwright, Penrod, and Phillips helped immeasurably. The game with Barberton Magics, later state champs, saw the Libbey Pigskinners lose a tough scrap 28-6. A little brightness came from the play of Broadway, Fink, and Sarchiz. The second half of their schedule saw the blue-jerseyed Libbey gridders again defeat the Central team with a convincing 26-6 score, Reiter, Palmer, Bowman, and Feltz sparking the victory. On the road, the Cowboys, with the breaks against them, dropped a close one, 18-12, to Hamilton, despite the great play of Sarchiz and Penrod. The second game with Waite, the one the whole team was looking forward to, saw the Libbey boys emerge the victor 7-6 behind the fine play of Penrod, Fink, Coleman, and Crooks. The hard-fought clash with Scott brought the Cowboys another victory, 13-6, with Edwards, Jacoby, and Stambaugh in name roles. With a week of rest behind them, the final game of the season, with DeVilbiss, brought victory, 13-0, and with it a tie for the city championship with Rynn, Kujda, and Poenicke outstanding.

With the loss of only one city league game and championship honors, other honors were brought to the school, the coaches, and the players themselves in the way of Broadway and Co-Captain Sarchiz gaining spots on all-state teams and Crooks, Fink, Broadway, Penrod, and Co-Captain Palmer being named on first all-city teams. Such a splendid seasonal record could not have been accomplished without hard work, careful coaching, and the great spirit of everyone concerned with the Libbey Cowboys. We wish more success to Coaches Harding and Robinson and may they keep up the fine record with future Cowboy elevens. The well-rounded athletic staff at Libbey is further bolstered by Coach Jeffery whose duties include head coaching of varsity basketball, baseball, and reserve football; Coach Harris, of lightweight football and basketball; Coach Robinson also of track; and Coach Spackey, of tennis, golf, and bowling.

A GIRL CAN BE PROUD

...when she earns her high school diploma

And she should be proud when she takes her place as a wage-earner.

"Telephone Girl" is a proud title in business . . . whether it's operator, stenographer or clerk. The telephone girl does interesting, useful work which is important to everybody.

She can take pride in her paycheck which grows steadily, adding six raises the first 18 months. She can be proud of her business home and the friendly girls with whom she works. Thorough training gives her confidence and good performance earns her promotion.

YOU, too, can be pleased and proud with a telephone job.
